

Jamboree on the Internet

The annual Jamboree on the Internet (JOTI) ran over 48 hours from 00:01 Saturday to 23:59 Sunday (local time) on the 21st and 22nd October.

Lots of fun was had browsing the web, sending e-mails and Chatting using IRC (Internet Relay Chat) once we could get on the server.

This year we not only worked with other Cleveland groups but also with Scouts from the Leven District of North Yorkshire.

As well as having lots of fun working with and communicating with Scouts all over the world, JOTI provides an opportunity for both Cubs and Scouts to work towards the Communicators badge.

Those people who attended JOTI may wear the JOTI badge for three months (i.e. until the end of January 2001).

It's Your group, It needs Your support!

The next group executive meeting is this Wednesday (8th November) at 19:30 in Lazenby Village Hall. The executive needs more support from parents of Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Ventures.

The Scouters (leaders) can only provide a full programme of activities for the groups members with support from parents as members of the executive.

See you on Wednesday!
